Click Continue.

Enter the name of your contact person at Komatsu Forest.

Confirm that you consent to Komatsu Forest managing your data in accordance with Komatsu Forest's privacy policies.

Choose whether you want access for a specific period or not. By default, access is granted for a period of 365 days, unless a specific period is entered.

Enter the business justification as to why you need access to FKES.

Click Submit request.

The request will be processed by Komatsu Forest and the request might either be approved or rejected. The average processing time is 1-2 business days.

As the end of the access period approaches, you will receive an e-mail with an opportunity to extend your access.

If the access isn't extended before the expiration date, you will be removed from the system and will need to repeat the access request process.

If you are new to FKES, be sure to check out the guide section for some useful tips. You can also follow these links:
